OPEN EVENINGS TILL CHRISTMAS.

SPECIAL SALE. ALL $15.00 SUITS, $9.90.

We expected to do a much bigger business this fall. We thought a decided change for the better would happen—and made up a big stock for "the boom that never came." Naturally, we have more suits on hand than we like—or expected—and, with stock-taking only a short while off, our only way to clear them out quickly is at a loss-consequently this sale. 'Tisn't often a reputable firm makes such an offer as this:

For $9.90 take your choice of every Cassimere and Cheviot Sack and Cutaway Suit in our house (including plain blacks and blues) marked $15, $13.50, and $12.50.

Don't think for a moment that there's only a few of the $15 Suits-mixed in to "tone" up the rest-because there's positively more of these in the sale than any other grade. We claim this to be the most liberal and advantageous offer ever made by a legitimate Washington firm—considering we are not selling odds and ends-but our entire stock. This sale'll rouse the city from end to end-and when we've distributed a certain number of suits we'll stop it-so the safest plan is to come as soon as possible. As every garment in this sale will be sold dollars under value-we will charge for all alterations. If you're not satisfied after buying-come and get your money back.

ENDEAVORERS TO PURCHASE

Redeemable in the Blessings of a Successful Convention.

There Will Be Twelve Series, Banging From Eixty Dollars to One Bollar and Twenty Cents, Payable in Monthly Installment:-It Is Expected That Ten Thousand Polisrs Will Be Baised-Additional Appointments.

The committee in charge of the International Christian Endeavor convention at Washington in 1896 has decided to issue eesaful convention," to assist in defraying the expenses of that monster gathering, There will be twelve series, ranging from $60 to $1.20, payable in twelve monthly installments. At the meeting of the committee of '96 yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. the following circular, drafted by the finance committee, was approved and will be sent to each one of the 7,000 senior and junior Endeavorers in the District.

"DEAR FELLOW ENDEAVORER: In the award to Washington of the fifteenth internajust about 8 o'clock, everybody aptearing to have come on the stroke of 8 o'clock.

Col. Ingersoli was to lecture on the Bible.
As soon as hestopped on the stage from the right wing he was received with a flattering demonstration. He bowed and began as follows:

"Ladies and gentlemen, somebody ought to tell the truth about the Bible. The ministers dure not. If they did they would be driven.

"Charas Flected, Dividend Declared—The annual meeting of the Government Printing Office Mutual Relief Association was held yesteriday at Typographical Temple. "It is roughly calculated that upwards of $20,000 with be required for the expenses of this convention. Your committee will use every effort, however, to keep the cost as low as possible. Yet we must care for curronests in such fashion that we may ever after point with gladness to the occasion as one worthy the reputation of our Christian Endeavorers

"Our greatest expense will be for the third or fourth temporary auditorium, which it will be necessary to erect for the meetings. These buildings will have a seating capacity of from $5.00 to 10,000, which is considerably greater than that of Convention Hall.

"It is deemed advisable to first make the financial company among our Endeavorers, expering pre-cities about one half the amount requires. Ten thousand delibras seems like a large sum to be raised from our young people a large sum, to realize which will re-BELF-DENIAL AND CONSECRATED STFORT,
